Pimalai is a rare resort whose architecture has been designed entirely around the natural 巴克全醛统自然免除设计,拥有超过100英contours and usb vegetation of over 100 acres in in pixel been in pixel

The elegantly-designed pool villas, set high in the verdant hillside, allow you to indulge in nature. From here, you will see the enchanting reality of thousands of years: virgin forest enveloping steep, flowered hills climbing up to a blue sky.

The tranquility, the abundance of flora, the exquisite views, the flery sunsets, all combine to maximize the sensation of being in Niyana. Indeed, the name "Pimalai" translates as "heavenly".

设计优雅的游泳池别墅,高高耸立在音翠的山坡上, 让您尽情享受大自然。 从这里,您可以欣赏数千年的迷人风景:陡峭的原始森林,花朵紧簇的小山与蓝天相接。

将宁静丰富的植物群、壮丽的风景和火 热的日落结合起来,最大限度地呈現涅槃的 感觉。事实上,"碧玛莱"意为"天堂"。

生活、微笑和爱将在长假后被铭记。

A Secret Sanctuary 一个秘密度假胜地

by David Lihn

Pimalai has long been a favorite. I was delighted to feature this exemplary resort over the past 很高兴在四年后能评价它。

Little has changed, It is still mesmerizing, the beach and waters a marvel, the food superb, activities splendid, the yacht a special treat.

What a majestic pedigree. Built in 2001, this refined and stylish resort (a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World) has been meticulously managed.

Getting there is a thrill: We splashed along on the sleek Pimalai craft—salty, tropical breezes on our cheeks, cold drinks in our hands—gliding over a translucent sea.

几乎没有变化,它依然优雅, 神奇的海滩 和水城, 精湛的食品, 精彩的活动, 游艇简 直是一种特殊的享受。

这里的建筑物始建于2001年,外观十分 雄伟壮丽。人们精心地经营与管理着这个带 着时尚苑儿的度假胜地(世界小型豪华酒店

到达那里后,宾客将会十分尽兴:他们可以花大量时间去欣赏碧玛莱的手工艺品,用脸庞感受咸湿的热带海风,手捧着冷饮,视线随着透明杯子划过大半个清澈的海洋。

Krabi 甲米

Then – out of that blue – towering, enchanting, bewildering, singular rock formations (stalagmites, vertical islands, prehistoric outcroppings?) began to sprout for the 45-minute journey.

We rounded the tip of lush Lanta Island as the sun descended. Then, rising 80 meters above a crescent beach, the Pimalai Resort & Spa appeared, perched on an arboreal hillside facing the Andaman Sea.

Wow, are you kidding me? Who scripted this?

Franck de Lestapis, the ubiquitous GM, happily pampers the resort. At breakfast (don't miss the views): "I have been here since the opening and the owners have spared no expense in creating a luxury experience. We constantly hear: "Paradise, serenity, heaven! Our guests return."

Indeed, during a snorkeling excursion, a sun-tanned Norwegian couple with two kids in tow, said it was their fifth visit.

Elegantly tiled, panorama-blessed, private infinity pools; a marathon beach (nearly one kilometer long); a divine, botanical-wonderland spa: a bosky oasis with landscaping grace and a three-tiered waterfall.

Water is the leitmotif of this luxurious vacation and defines the experience. It's everywhere: you are transported on it; luxuriate and float on it; swim in its waves and tiled shelters; dive and snorkel beneath it; sail, kayak and water-board over it – and even listen to it cascading as you enjoy the garden-themed Spa.

Pimalai offers 121 units (46 beautifully-appointed, hillside poolvillas), with an elaborate range of accommodations in both its Beach Side (single deluxe rooms, to beach-front-sumptuous villas) and Hill Side Estates (with full-pool, duplex = 1.3 BRs).

This stunning resort provides it.

然后 - 走出那一片蓝- 欣赏高耸、迷人、 令人眼花缭乱的奇异怪石(石笋、垂直岛屿,在史前曾经露出水面?),我们开始了 45分钟的旅行。

绕过郁郁葱葱的兰达岛一端 (太阳的 后裔),然后沿着新月形海滩向上走80 米,碧玛莱度假村便出现在眼前了,栖息在 面朝安达曼海的山坡上。

哇, 你在开玩笑吗? 谁书写了这些呢?

总经理Franck de Lestapis很宠爱这个度假胜地,他在早餐时(不要错过风景)说:"自开业是我一直呆在这里,业主们不惜工本创造一个奢华的体验,我们经常听到客人这样反馈:"伊甸园、宁静、天堂!"。

确实,因为潜水游览时,我们看到一对 被晒黑的挪威夫妇带着两个孩子,这是他们 第五次来这里了。

优雅的瓷砖、得天独厚的全景、私人无 边泳池、马拉松海滩(将近一公里长)、一 个神圣的植物仙境温泉:郁郁葱葱的绿洲, 包括优雅的团林和三层瀑布。

".....典型的, 优雅的, 以亚洲为中心的度假村和水疗中心。"

The luxurious Banyan Tree brand – with its marvelous patrimony – is the quintessential, elegant, Asia-centric resort and spa. It is the paragon of sumptuous, boutique vacation travel.

Here on the southeastern shore of Samui, this resort exudes a holistic, restorative aura. 为宾客提供全方位的像兼恬憩场所。

They use the sobriquet: "A Sanctuary for the Senses" – and it lives up to the billing. This resort does, indeed, focus on the senses (it provides romance, intimacy, privacy, and hovering, lush surroundings). And the sensible: ecologically aware, it embraces a "green conscience".

Nestled on a tropical, terraced hillside within a small peninsula (19 kilometers from the airport), the 88 spacious, all-pool villas tumble down lush, gardened terrain to a cove overlooking Lamai Bay. The arcing, private beach invites exquisite solitude—as well as ample water adventure (kayaking, snorkeling and diving).

The Spa and Rainforest service is close to legendary.

苏梅密斯卡湾奢华海滩别墅度假村

This is a luxurious chunk of undiluted, private paradise on Samui's magical Mae Nam Beach. The villas are ideal for families and close-knit groups looking to enjoy an exclusive holiday – or celebrate a wedding or anniversary.

First, a confession: I know the owners. Happily, the buoyancy and soigné of Filipe Santos manifests itself in this regal, yet understated, resort.

Acacia's (535 sqm) four bedrooms spill out to 22 meters of beach and are carefully designed around a central garden. Alongside a well-equipped private gym, at the garden's rear is a paylion with two twin bedrooms, each with its own bathroom.

The six-BR Lotus has 39 meters of beachfront and nearly 600 sqm of living space (GPS provided!). The chef indulges you.

Elegant, enchanting, superbly appointed – and all with private pools and beachfront – this is tempered hedonism.

Geography

Thailand is the 50th largest country in the world (similar in size to France or Texas). Located just north of the equator, it has a tropical climate. Its largest peak, Doi Inthanon in the mountainous north, is 2,565 meters (8,415 feet) high. It covers more than 500,000 sq km (200,000 sq miles) with 2,230 sq km of water. The coastline is 3,219 kilometer long. Its longest shared border is with Myanmar (Burma) on the west stretching 1,800 km.

Weather

The weather is usually hot and humid, typical of its equatorial location, and temperatures range from 19 to 38 degrees C (66-100 F). Generally, Thailand can be divided into three seasons: "hot" (April), "rainy" (September) and "cool" (December), although the geography allows visitors to find suitable weather somewhere in the country throughout the year.

Population

Thalland is comprised of nearly 70 million citizens, the majority of whom are ethnically Thai, though Chinese, Indian, Malay, Mon, Khmer, Burmese and Lao are also represented. Approximately 8 million people live in the capital, Bangkok, though this number has been difficult to accurately assess. The vast majority (roughly 80%) of the citizens are Thai. In Bangkok, a greater diversity exists, including a large number of expatriate residents. Other geographic distinctions of the population include a Muslim majority near the Malaysian border and hill tribe ethnic groups, such as the Hmong and Karen, who live in the northern menutation. the northern mountains.

About 90% of the population speak Thai or one of its regional dialects. While this is the official language, due to the established tourismin-frastructure, English is commonly understood throughout Thailand.

Approximately 94% of Thais are Buddhist, 5% Muslim, 1% Christian and other.

Thai Greeting

The Thai greeting referred to as the wai consists of a slight bow, with the palms pressed together in a prayer-like fashion (and often replaces the Western-style handshake)

The higher the hands are held in relation to the face and the lower the bow, the more respect or reverence the giver of the wai is displaying. The wai is traditionally observed upon formally entering a house. After the visit is over, the visitor asks for permission to leave and repeats the salutation made upon entering. It is also common as a way to express gratitude or to apologize.

The word often spoken with the wai as a greeting or farewell is sawatdi, sometimes romanized as sawasdee. This verbal greeting is usually followed by kha (when spoken by a female) and khrap (male).

Waiing remains to this day an extremely important part of socialb behavior among Thais, who are very sensitive to their self-perceived standing in society. Foreign tourists and other visitors unaccustomed to the intricacies of Thai language and culture should not wai someone younger than them except in return for their wai. However, one should always return a wai that is offered as a sign of respect.

Corporate wais, such as those performed by convenience store cashiers, generally are reciprocal with a smile or a nod.

If one receives a wai while carrying goods, or for any reason that makes returning it difficult, one should still show their respect by making a physical effort to return it as best as possibleunder the circumstances

泰式打招呼

泰式打招呼的方式是为合十礼,微微低失,用折棒般的方式将手掌合在一起(往往取代了 西式的握手)。相对于脸部布低失的程度,手举得越高,代表了行合十礼者越免的尊重和 禁敬。合十礼是正式进屋后的传统礼仪、拜访结束后,来访者要求离开,重复进屋时所做 的动作,同时合十礼也用于表达鸬鹚或道歉。

行合十礼时或告别时的问候语是sawatdi, 罗马拼音是sawasdee.。口头问候语后通常聚 KHA(女性口语)和khrap(男性口语)。

直到现在,合十礼仍然是泰国社会生活中一个极其重要的组成部分,泰国人假重视自己在 社会中的自我感觉。外国谢某和其他游客不习惯泰国语言和文化的复杂性,比如泰国人觉 邻不应该异北自己年轻的人,除泰回拜。但是,每个人都应该回拜以示尊重。另外还有团 体合十礼,如便利店收假具一般都会重复颁奖或点头。

如果在拿东西时得到别人的合十礼,或因各种原因很难回拜,仍然应该根据情况尽可能地 通过身体动作表示尊重。

Land of Smiles

Thailand is often called the "land of smiles," not only because visitors glow over its natural beauty and historical riches, but also because of the country's friendly people and fascinating culture.

Since a serene disposition is valued, beware that conflict and sudden displays of anger are eschewed in Thai culture. For these reasons, visitors should take care not to assign blame or draw attention to another person's error, particularly if they are local.

Often Thais will deal with disagreements, minor mistakes, or misfortunes by using the phrase mai pen rai, translated as "it doesn't matter." The ubiquitous use of this phrase in Thailand reflects a disposition towards minimizing conflict, disagreements or complaints. A smile and mai pen ai indicate that the incident is not important and therefore there is no conflict or shame involved.

In everyday life in Thailand, there is a strong emphasis on the concept of sanuk: the idea thal life should be fun. Because of this, Thais can be quite playful at work and during day-to-day activities. Displaying positive emotions in social interactions is also important in Thai culture.

微笑的国度

泰国被称为"微笑的国度",不仅是因为游客焕发了它的自然风光和历史财富,还因为泰国友好的人民和迷人的文化。

由于重视宁静的性格,冲突和突兀的表现在泰国文化中 是不允许的。由于这些原因,游客应注意不要制造冲突 或唐突。在遇到分歧和争端时应面带微笑处理,并且不 怪罪别人。

在泰国的日常生活中,特别强调一个概念:生活应该很有趣。正因为如此,工作和每天的日常活动会变得更加有趣,在社会交往中显示积极的情绪在泰国文化中也是很重要的。

泰国人通常会说mai pen rai (意思是"没关系") 来处理分歧、小错误或不幸遭遇。在泰国,这个短语无处不 在, 反映了泰国人企量减少冲突、分歧或较诉的性格。 一个微笑,一句"mai pen rai"表示这起事件并不重 要,因此没有发生冲突或耻辱的必要。

Temples

Since Thailand is a Buddhist country, temples play an important role in everyday life. Thais go for merit making, pray to the Buddha for things such as good health, good fortune, and to seek advice from monks. It is customary for young boys to ordain as a monk and live in the temple for a short time.

There are a number of Thai customs relating to the special status of monks in Thai society. Thai monks are forbidden physical contact with women.

Women are therefore expected to make way for passing monks to ensure that accidental contact (or indeed appearance together) does not occur.

Women making offerings to monks place their donation at the feet of the monk, or on a doth laid on the ground or a table. Powders or unguents intended to carry a blessing are applied to Thai women by monks using the end of a candle or stick.

Laypersons are expected to sit or stand with their heads at a lower level than that of a monk. Within a temple, monks may sit on a raised platform during ceremonies to make this easier to achieve.

When sitting in a temple, one is expected to point one's feet away from images of the Buddha. Shrines inside Thair residences are arranged so as to ensure that the feet are not pointed towards the religious icons, such as placing the shrine on the same wall as the head of a bed.

It is also customary to remove one's footwear before entering a home or the sacred areas within a temple, and not to step on the threshold.

寺庙

有许多关于泰胆社会中僧侣特殊效位的风容。泰国僧侣龄 禁止与女人有身体接触。因此, 妇女需要给僧侣让路, 以 确保不改生意外接触。确保业女和僧人不处生偶然侵犯的 (成外弱接触)的方法有限多。如妇女任供告僧人时 间的贡品放在队即上,或故在镇定私地直出的市上或果 上。僧人通过使用蜡烛或棒米鸡,赠与女性乳燥的粉末或 油膏。

外人在站或坐的时候,他们的头需要低于僧人的头。在寺庙,和尚可以坐在凸起的平台上,更容易显示僧侣的地位。

当坐在寺庙内时,需要提醒别人不要将脚指向佛像。泰国 住宅内布置的佛龛是用来保证脚没有指向宗教圣像,如将 神龛放置在与床头同一面的墙上。

在进入寺庙房间内或在神圣的区域前,需要脱鞋,且不能踩门槛。

Thai New Year

Thai New Year, or Songkran, is officially observed from 13–15 April each year. Falling at the end of the dry season and during the hot season in Thailand, the celebrations notoriously feature boisterous water throwing, which stemmed from washing Buddha images and lightly sprinkling scented water on the hands of elderly people. Small amounts of scented talcum powder were also used in the annual cleansing rite.

In recent decades, water fights have been increasingly industrialized with use of hoses, barrels, squirt guns, water-filled surgical tubing, and copious amounts of powder.

dishes with strong aromatic components and a spicy edge. It is known for its complex interplay of between three and five fundamental taste senses in each dish or the overall meal: sour, sweet, salty, bitter, and spicy.

While Thai food has a reputation for being particularly spicy, it is actually balancing these core olefactory senses. This goes beyond simply combining the flavors within an individual dish to incorporate the contrast between two or three different dishes, which is one reason Thai's share meals and eat family style.

One distinctive aspect of Thai food is the use of fresh herbs and spices as well as the inclusion of fermented fish sauce in nearly every dish – a potential problem for vegetarians, though saying "jay" to indicate you are vegetarian goes a long way.

FLOATING MARKETS 水上市场

Amphawa Floating Market
Amphawa is the second most popular floating market 50 km from Bangkok, not as large as Damnoen Saduak but more authentic, with visitors almost exclusively Thai. This once small village was apparently already present in the mid-17th century, it has become such a magnet for Thai weekenders that food stalls have grown from the riverbanks and stretched far into the surrounding streets.

The main draw is of course eating seafood grilled precariously on wooden boats moored around the famous central bridge, serving an appetizing array of huge prawns, shellfish and squid. From noon until late in the evening, the smell is simply irresistible and customers flock to each side of the river all daylong.

In 2008, the community was granted an Honorable Mention Award from the UNESCO Asia–Pacific Heritage Awards for Culture Heritage Conservation.

Pattaya Floating Market to Pattaya Floating Market is new tourist destination for Thai cultural conservation located in the heart of Pattaya city. It was established as a center of tourism focusing on cultural conservation that simulates the simple way of life of Thai people. It is also a learning center for Thai self-sufficient living connected with water, and a fascinating view of the local wisdom of four regions of Thailand: the North, the Central, the North East and the South.

Plearnwan
Plearnwan is an eco-vintage village near Hua Hin that features a 1950s faux-Thai high street that evokes the good old days of traditional Thai culture. Plearn is a combination of "play" and "learn" while Wan is from "wunwan", meaning good old days.

Two-story wooden shop-houses in the center are decorated in old-fashioned style with advertisements, film posters, fashion magazines, appliances, and collections connote a nostalgic time.

Plearnwan includes a radio station that entertains all day long with oldies. Also, visitors can take vintage photos with a picture of Hua Hin Station as a backdrop. On the weekend, visit a funfair, an outdoor cinema, a Ferris wheel, and a variety of amusing side-stalls and games. Indulge in dishes at Khao-oon Kaengron, a renowned local restaurant, such as skewered sweet grilled fish, Thai style noodle rolls, Thai coconut pancakes and ice pops.

Khamphaeng Phet Historical Park

The Ping River courses through the Kamphaeng Phet Park near Sukhothai, a UNESCO-recognized World Heritage Site which is comprised of a diverse array of ancient monuments. A common aesthetic runs through the various ruins, which include temples, pagodas and fallen towns, resulting in a beau-tiful blend of contemporary Sukhothai and Ayutthaya styles.

Over 1,000 years old, this park is one of Thailand's most amazing architectural sites. Built on an extinct volcano, it was originally a Hindu religious site. Additions were made during the 15th-18th Buddhist century.

A grand stairway rises from the foot of the hill. Most of the sanctuary A grant startway inset from the root of the lim. note of the santituary buildings are made of laterite and sandstone, all with elaborate designs. The buildings are lined all the way to the main pagoda whose layout is according to Hindu belief of God Shiva's heaven.

The large main pagoda has a square-base facing East. Exquisite designs on the pagoda, columns, doorway, and lintels tell a story of Hindu gods. Each building features descriptive motifs reciting a purpose of its construction. The pagoda, stairway and the Naga Bridge were all built during the 17th Buddhist century.

This is the largest pagoda in Thailand and the official provincial symbol of Nakhon Pathom. It was built during the reign of King Rama IV in 1853, the former Chedi seems to be dated back to 539 AD. The construction of the new buge Chedi was completed in the reign of King Rama V in 1870 AD, and to Changing money is a straight-forward process, but there are a few things you need to be aware of for the best rate.

Changing money at the airport
Easy and convenient. Numerous exchange booths mainly operated by TMB and SCB do not offer great rates. If you do change money at Suvamabhumi, go to the basement level to Kasikorn Bank located by the entrance to the airport train link (open 7:00 am -11:00 pm). When downtown you can compare rates at different branches.

Which banks in Thailand provides the best exchange rate? Generally, Kasikom and Bangkok Bank tend to offer competitive rates. Independent money-changers such as Super Rich (no traveler's checks) provide better rates, but there are few outlets so factor in convenience. If large transactions, then Super Rich is a good option.

ATMs
ATMs are common (none on some islands, like Koh Lipe).
Most accept foreign cards. Thai banks charge a 150 - 200
Baht ATM withdrawal fee for foreign cards. One exception is AEON Bank (the fee is separate to any fees your own card issuer charges). Maximum withdrawals are usually on non Rahr

NOTE: You can make withdrawals against a debit card at most banks or exchange bureaus. Bring your passport. Citibank offers free withdrawals in amounts over 20,000 Baht.

You will need your passport and the address of your hotel. Obtaining higher denomination checks will save you fees.

Credit and Debit Cards Advise your bank or card issuer in advance that you are travelling to Thailand to avoid being flagged for security rea-

Changing cash
Unlike traveler's checks, there are no commission fees for changing cash. However, the rate is slightly lower. Larger denominations have a better rate. Make sure the notes are in good condition. If ripped or dog-eared they can be refused.

Exchanging money at your hotel

在机场更换货币 简单方便。主要由TMB和SCB银行运营,通常 不提供优惠的汇率。如果您在来方那普兑换,乘 坐地场块线到达地下一楼的开卷银行,(经营时 同: 07-002-23-2300)。当您到达市区时可以比较 下不同分行的汇率。
